CCK.4

Create messages using a combination of pictures, symbols, and letters.

- a) Experiment with drawing, scribbling, letters, and temporary spelling to convey ideas.
- c) Use language cues and conventions to construct and communicate meaning when "writing":
 - use and apply the different functions of language (pragmatic)
 - tell or dramatize stories using own words and appropriate gestures (textual)
 - use different sentence patterns (syntactic)
 - manipulate sounds and words in shared, guided, and independent activities (lexical/semantic)
 - explore sounds and rhymes (graphophonic)
 - use various tools and techniques to represent ideas (other cues and conventions).
- d) Attempt to copy letters or words from the environment (e.g., books, chart paper poems, word wall, name cards, public signs) to express ideas or understanding.

AR1.1

Identify, with teacher guidance, what good viewers, listeners, readers, representers, speakers, and writers do.

- a) Reflect on viewing, listening, reading, speaking, writing, and other representing experiences in the context of teacher-led discussions.
- b) Co-reflect on viewing, listening, reading, speaking, writing, and other forms of representing to identify strengths and to discuss attributes of, and strategies used by, good viewers, listeners, readers, representers, speakers, and writers.
- c) Seek feedback from peers, teacher, and others.
